

Introduction to Marine Biology (#2493976)

Created by Steve Altstiel

Copyright (c) 2011 ClassHelper.org.

Across Clues	Down Clues
2. Marine Biology is not really a separate science, but contains many disciplines, such as _.	1. ____'s dolphin was named after the Wilkes Expedition naturalist.
6. The scientific study of marine organisms that live in the sea.	3. Who lives in a pineapple under the sea?
7. Self-contained underwater breathing apparatus.	4. By what method is data of large-scale features like ocean currents collected?
9. Compact underwater video camera attached to animals.	5. Made detailed observations of the natural world while aboard the HMS Beagle.
11. Sound Navigation Ranging developed during the onset of WWII.	8. Ancient Greek Philosopher considered to be the first marine biologist.
12. Discovered Vinland.	10. Modified a breathing apparatus to breathe compressed air under water.
13. Marine life represents a vast source of human _____.	14. One of the most famous deep-sea submarine.
16. Carried out extensive dredging of the Aegean Sea floor in 1840s and 50s.	15. Marine organisms provide about ____ the oxygen we breathe.

Puzzle #2493976. To view the solution or reprint this puzzle, please visit:
<http://www.classhelper.org/puzzle-solutions/>